All persons proceeding to the said festival in contravention of this notification will be turned back.

III.

In exercise of the powers delegated to him under the Epidemic Diseases Act, 1897, the Governor in Council hereby appoints the Trichinopoly Fort, Trichinopoly Junction, Srirangam Road and Trichinopoly-Palakkarai Railway Stations to be inspection stations from the 19th December 1913 to 18th January 1914, under Rule 16 of Madras Plague Regulations in force outside the Presidency Town.

IV.

Whereas the Governor in Council is satisfied that there is danger of an outbreak of plague at Samayapuram in the Trichinopoly Taluk of the Trichinopoly District, if the annual cattle fair is permitted to be held at that place on the occasion of the ensuing Ekadasi festival at Srirangam.

In exercise of the powers delegated to him under the Epidemic Diseases Act, 1897, the Governor in Council prohibits the holding of the said fair from the 2nd to 18th January 1914, inclusive.

No. 6001—San. 85-12-4, dated 10th December 1913.

In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 2 of the Epidemic Diseases Regulation, II of 1897, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore are pleased to prescribe the following rules for the prevention of epidemics in the vicinity of the Cauvery Reservoir Works at Kannambadi. The rules will come into effect from the date of this notification and shall remain in force until further notice:—

1. All labourers and artisans newly arriving in the area will be kept in quarantine for a period of fourteen days.

2. If any person or persons among the new arrivals be observed to be suffering from any disease of a contagious nature, the patient or patients shall immediately be removed to the isolation camp for treatment. The contracts shall also be isolated and kept under observation, due facilities in respect of accommodation being provided.

3. The new arrivals in the quarantine sheds will not be allowed to visit or be visited by persons permanently encamped in the area, during the period of observation.

4. The Sanitary or Assistant Sanitary Inspector shall, in the course of his daily itineration, visit every hut and report cases of illness to the Medical Officer.

5. In case of death due to epidemic diseases, especially cholera, all clothes belonging to the patient shall, if possible, be burnt, or if washed, they shall be washed in the house itself and not under any circumstances in the river.

6. Houses in which a case of plague, cholera or small-pox has occurred shall be disinfected chemically as well as by dessication and such huts or sheds as do not permit of disinfection in a satisfactory manner shall be destroyed.

7. Persons infected or suspected to be infected with cholera, small-pox, plague, etc., and persons residing in a locality in which such diseases have occurred may be prohibited by a written order of a Sanitary Officer from leaving such locality unless and until the Sanitary Officer certifies that they may safely be permitted to leave such locality.

The following Resolution of the Government of India, Department of Commerce and Industry, No. 9446—9461-3, dated 7th November 1913, regarding the prohibition of the landing of certain immigrants in Canada is published for general information:—

Intimation has been received from His Majesty's Secretary of State for India that the Government of Canada anticipate a very congested labour market in British Columbia and propose to prohibit until 31st March 1914, the landing therein of any immigrant of the artisan or general or unskilled labour class, subject to the proviso that the immigration authorities may admit any immigrant if satisfied that his admission will not add to the congestion of the labour market.

The Governor-General in Council accordingly requests all Local Governments and Administrations to make the above intimation as widely known as possible, particularly in places from which emigration to Canada is believed to be most common. Intending emigrants should also be warned at the ports of embarkation of the risks they run in proceeding to that country.

ORDER.—Ordered that a copy of the above Resolution be forwarded for information and guidance to the Local Governments and Administrations noted in the margin and to the Home and Foreign Departments, for information.

DEPARTMENTS OF EDUCATION AND AGRICULTURE.

Notification No. 5791—Edn. 8-13-4, dated 3rd December 1913.

The following revised rules for the award of Secondary School-Leaving Certificates sanctioned by Government are published for general information:—

RULES.

I. To whom awarded.—These certificates may be awarded on the completion of their school course to boys or girls who—

- (1) have attended one or more recognized secondary schools from at least the fourth form upwards,
- (2) have attended each of the fourth, fifth and sixth forms for not less than sixty per cent of the number of working days in each term and for not less than 120 working days in each school year, unless specially exempted by the Board, such exemption being however granted only in the case of candidates who have attended the school regularly, but whose attendance falls short of the required minimum by only a few days.

II. By whom awarded.—

- (1) The certificate shall be awarded by a Board consisting of the Inspector-General of Education as ex-officio President, six officers of the Government Educational service and six others, and the Secretary.
- (2) The members of the Board shall be appointed for a period of three years and shall be eligible for reappointment.
- (3) The Assistant to the Inspector-General of Education shall be Secretary to the Board.
- (4) The Board shall arrange for the award of the certificate in accordance with the provisions of the scheme.

III. Scope of the certificate.—The certificate shall take into account the school work done by the pupil from the fourth form upwards, and shall also contain the results of the Inspector's Examinations every year and those of the public examination conducted by the Board. It shall show exactly what subjects pupils have studied and discriminate fairly between one pupil and another as to the benefits each has received from the school course.

The subjects of study will be those specified in Group A and at least two to be selected out of Groups B and C, provided that in the case of candidates wishing to take up a collegiate course both the electives are from Group B. It is open to a candidate to take a supplemental course in any number to gain a supplemental certificate.

A. COMPULSORY.

1. English.
2. Second language: any one out of (a) Vernaculars: Kannada, Urdu, Tamil or Telugu, or (b) Classical: Sanskrit, Arabic or Persian.
3. Elementary Mathematics.
